VOL. IV. NO. 82.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

ORNAMENT'S SMART WORK.

MEMPHIS, TENN., April 6.—Ornament worked a mile and a sixteenth at Montgomery Park this morning in 1:48, the first mile in 1:41.

NASHVILLE CLOSES FRIDAY.

NASHVILLE, TENN., April 6.—The meeting here closes Friday and thus a conflict with Memphis is avoided.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mr. Assur, in the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, writes:

"Horses—and good ones, too—will be plentiful at Newport. Fully thirty are quartered there now, while every one of the 560 stalls has been applied for. Pat Morrissey, W. C. T. Lobengula, Nannie L's Sister, David and Charina are a few that arrived a couple of days ago.

"T. D. Carter of Chicago has some of the raciest two-year-olds ever seen on the local tracks. Among them are full brothers to Dr. Sharp and The Ace. W. M. Rogers of Elkton, Md., has Indra, Our Gertie and ten others. Jerome Bonaparte Respass, besides his Oaks filly, Flora Louise, has Elusive and eight strapping two-year-olds. Flora Louise is recovering nicely from her sickness, and will be a hard one to beat this year among the three-year-old misses. Frank Jones of Lexington has two fine-looking two-year-old colts by Farandole, the sire of Mazarin. John Hannigan has fourteen horses, and several of them are ready to race. Alex. Shields has that remarkable horse Logan—the winner of 103 races—almost ready to go to the post. Despite his long and hard career Logan to-day looks as fine as silk. He will most likely go to the post Saturday."

The Breeder and Sportsman of San Francisco says: "Burns & Waterhouse have such a poor lot of runners that they may not send a string to the far east, as usual, this season, but race around the California tracks. Recreation and Napamax are the only good ones in the big bunch. They have sixty-eight in training—the largest string of gallopers in the United States—and recently sold off seventeen head. Just think of having eighty-five race horses belonging to one firm. They have fifty-six men and boys on the pay-roll, which runs away over $7,000 per month. To break even on a season, then, these horses must win over $90,000 in twelve months, for railroad fares will make expenses run up to this figure."

The especially unreliable Enquirer of Cincinnati says: "Owner C. J. Kelly is quartered at the Munro. Mr. Kelly arrived yesterday morning direct from New Orleans. The purport of his business was to settle a private affair. His horses were shipped directly from the Crescent City to Chicago, where the string will be raced till midsummer, when they will be taken east. Mr. Kelly speaks highly of two colts in his barn. The youngsters are by his old campaigner Kingstock, a full brother to that illustrious racehorse Kingston. The dams of the youngsters are Enrica and Fate, both well bred mares."

The fillies Duplicate, Terrene, May Be So and Factory Girl, in the Clay & Woodford stable, have been unsexed. Commenting upon the fact the Turf, Field and Farm, sensibly says:

"The unsexing of fillies for racing is a rather unusual practice, but the idea is a good one for several reasons. The chances are that, being relieved of their sexual troubles in the spring, they will train better and keep in better condition and be more reliable in races. Again, the use of the knife will relieve the breeding ranks of many weeds. The careers of the unsexed fillies will be watched with much interest, and if the operation should prove successful it ought to become popular, for there can be no doubt but that the judicious and more frequent use of the knife on both colts and fillies will eventually benefit the breeding interests, as well as improve the breed of horses. It is important to invent a name for unsexed fillies, in order that they may be identified and kept track of as such, and whenever the operation is performed the animals should be marked in some way to prevent their being disposed of as entire mares by unscrupulous traders into whose hands they may chance to fall."

The Washington Jockey Club has adopted the following set of, let us call them regulations, for its coming meeting:

Entries to all races must be made by 12 o'clock every day unless otherwise ordered. Under the rules of the Jockey Club no horse can start in any race at a less weight than eighty-four pounds, and under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association no horse can start in a hurdle race or steeplechase at a less weight than 130 pounds. Entrance money for all races and jockey's fees must be paid at the scales before weighing out for any race. In all races, flat, hurdle or steeplechase, there must be five or more entries or the race may be declared off at the option of the committee. The committee reserves the right to start any or all races with or without a machine or other starting device.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey A. Thompson, whose lamentable accident occurred outside the Sheffield, Ind., and not the Roby track, June 26, 1897, as the balloon news from Nashville states, is riding at Nashville with a cork leg. He rode Kentucky Colonel Monday and the inanimate member did not seem to handicap him.

The queer news from Nashville tells us that May Hempstead, who survived a reported accident in an astonishing way, has run into the catarrhal fever strata of misfortune. We may expect to get the news of her recovery from the latest telegraphic ill within a few days.

Leon A. Legg is credited in California with the plan of buying, Fortunate, Montallade, Blarneystone and Double Quick for a Chicago foray. All are handy horses. Mr. Legg, too, is more than a handy mechanic when he has the right tools.

Mike Dwyer, ever a disciple of present use of the horse, is said to have offered H. Warnke—who, through Reclaire, broke into turf success in 1889—$10,000 for his Pirate of Penzance—Minnehaha Belle colt, Pirate M, a smart youngster.

David, of the Benson, Arthur & Co. string, was shaken up badly in the race special that was wrecked on its way from New Orleans here. It will be some time before he is able to race.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Ancient and unreliable B F Fly Jr has failed as a driving horse for Captain Carell of the Nashville fire department and has been turned over to the police department as a riding horse for one of the mounted squad.

The Foster colt bought from Elmer Slaughter with Eva Rice and mentioned in DAILY RACING FORM of Wednesday, April 6, was first named Elmer S. and is by Julien, out of Kittie H., by Deceiver.

Jockey Charles Kuhn, ruled off for good cause three or four years ago, has been given a license by the Turf Congress committee and is to ride for the Fleischmann stable this season.

The land between here and San Francisco is quivering. The only Tod is on his way from there to goodness knows where—in the east. He is riding on the cars, too.

Tod Sloan has purchased Queen Nubia for his brother Fremont. He paid Ed Corrigan $600 for the Calvados filly.

Winner—Ch. c. by Stonehenge—Bassinette. Start good. Won in a gallop. There was but little bustle below the sixteenth pole. Blarneystone is a wonder as a dasher in mud and was the best. He needs strong handling and got it. Miss Rowena favors a fast track and isn't much at a route. She was used a lot and quit at the end. Al Koran had plenty of speed. He was short. The race will key him up. Watch him for mud. Castake was short and outclassed. Hardly showed a little speed early, but was not nearly ready.

Scratched—Abina, 105; Chihuahua, 107; Good Friend, 107.

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:17½, 1:46, 1:53½.

Winner—B. c. 4, by St Andrew—Cuisine. Start good. Won easily; hard drive for place. The track was to Casper's order. He reveled in the soft going and raced in his old style. Paul Pry is fit and can win at once. The footing did not suit him. He likes a fast track and closed strong. Thelma ran her race. She is fit and favors mud. So does Terry. After a stout effort, he was eased. Claudius like all the Brutus family favors hard going. He needs strong handling, is ready and inclines toward a route. Masoero will do his best on a hard track. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—Twinkle Twink, 103; Daylight, 105; Rey del Tierra, 105; Earl Cochran, 111.

Time, 124, 25, 38½, 51.

Winner—B. f. by Watercress—Folly. Start fair. Won in a gallop. The race was over at the eighth pole. Parasseuse, when caught, quit as she usually does. She is fit and had no bad luck. Sevens was best, likes mellow going and is fit. She's a good filly and likes to race. Scratch favors a fast track and is none too game. Throw out E Come's race. He ran away three quarters of a mile before start. He was fit. Watch him after another race. Santello leans toward fast footing.

4953 FOURTH RACE—1-8 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:17½, 1:45, 1:58½.

Winner—B. c. by Morello—Early Rose. Start good. Won in a gallop. In the going Jones outclassed his lot. He is extra good on a muddy track and as fit as possible. Torsida ran her race. She favors a fast course. Borgia—another Brutus—was at sea in the mud. Venado, too, is not partial to soft footing. He's ready.

4954 FIFTH RACE—1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Amigo—Santa Margherita. Start good. Won in a gallop. The mud favored Alvarado. In it he outclassed the lot. Flashlight ran an honest race. He is fit. He needs a fast track to do his best. Newsgatherer was shut off on first and stretch turns and none too well ridden. His forte is mud. The interference he met with settled him. Wheel of Fortune ran as if short. She favors fast going. Double Quick was short and had an easy race. Watch him. The race will do him good.

Scratched—Grady, 111; Summertime, 103; San Marco, 105.

Winner—B. m. 7, by Cheviot—Bessie Shannon.
Start good. Won in a drive. Only two horses contended. The going settled the balance. Of the two leaders, Lost Girl was best; but was beaten by a bad ride. She was sharply shut off on the turn for home. Throw out this race. State was well handled and lucky. She's fit, too. So is Florimel—for use among his own kind. Princess floundered all over the track. Claudiana is only worth consideration in fast going. Alma is of no account and Safie was outclassed.
